ABOUT

In each of his presentations, Eliam brings raw authentic vulnerability to the forefront—sharing experiences from facing death at birth, witnessing his first murder at age seven, to saving his mother’s life when he was only eleven. He transforms these deeply personal moments into powerful narratives, guiding audiences through a spectrum of emotions, from profound empathy to genuine inspiration.

Eliam openly shares the frameworks that helped him break free from cycles of low self-worth, anger and isolation. Ultimately supporting his journey to becoming a responsible and purpose-driven young man. Today, he stands confidently as a public speaker and dedicated communication educator.

Known for his passion and genuine love for his craft, Eliam leaves audiences in awe, inspired, and equipped with practical tools to courageously pursue their own passions.
